Aika is seeking revenge for what happened to her in the past. Hien also vows to get his revenge although circumstances are different. Soldier is obsessed with fire-arms. Momo supports the three by setting honey traps. They form a group without even knowing each other's background to destroy the yakuza organization. Then Hien discovers information about drug dealing by Mr. Kato, a shady chairman of Soken Products Company. He has been extending his influence steadily despite Soldier and Hien's tireless raiding of yakuza transactions and other money extracting behaviors. Soken masquerades as a legitimate trading company, but in fact it is involved in mafia-like villainy such as drug dealing and arms smuggling through its armed group BLACK BULLET.
